Greetings from the President

On behalf of the University of Florida and our administration, faculty and staff, I would like to extend my heartfelt congratulations to you, the Class of 2017, and to your family and friends.

I share your pride and excitement, and I am confident that your degree – and the skills and experience you acquired while at this university – will serve you well in your careers and lives.

It has been a privilege to have you as a part of our community, and the university is better for your time here. I hope you remain connected to UF as active alumni and members of The Gator Nation.

Good luck, best wishes, and Go Gators!

Distinguished Alumnus Award

J. Brent Walker

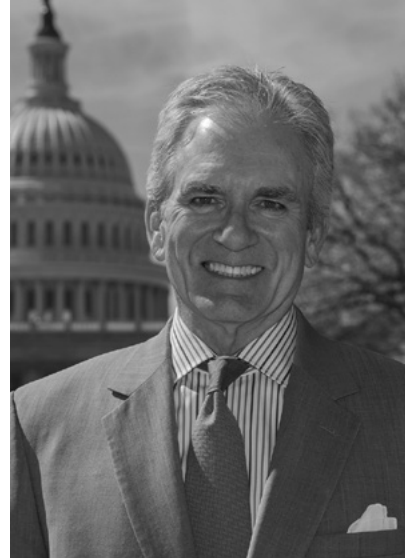

J. Brent Walker is the former executive director of the Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty (BJC) in Washington, D.C., a member of the Bar of the U.S. Supreme Court and an ordained minister. For 17 years he led the BJC, whose mission is “to defend and extend God-given religious liberty for all,” while championing the principles of religious liberty that should not be advanced nor inhibited by government. He has testified before Congress on numerous church-state matters and worked on dozens of amicus briefs filed at the U.S. Supreme Court. Mr. Walker is widely published and routinely speaks at churches, educational institutions and denominational gatherings. He also provides commentary on religious liberty issues in the national media. Mr. Walker was a partner in the law firm of Carlton Fields in Tampa, Fla. until 1986 when he left to attend Southern Seminary in Louisville, Ky. He earned a Master of Divinity degree in 1989 and was named the most outstanding graduate. While in seminary, Mr. Walker pastored the Richland Baptist Church in Falmouth, Ky.

Mr. Walker moved to the District of Columbia to join the BJC staff in 1989 as associate general counsel. In 1993, he was named general counsel and, upon the retirement of Executive Director James Dunn in 1999, he became the agency’s fifth executive director since its launch in 1936.

Mr. Walker’s legacy at the BJC includes working to pass the landmark Religious Freedom Restoration Act in 1993 and Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act in 2000, standing against efforts to amend the First Amendment in the late 1990s, opposing government-sponsored displays of Ten Commandments monuments in the mid-2000s and speaking out against the targeting of individuals based on religion during heightened Islamophobia in the early 2010s. He retired from the BJC in 2016.

During his tenure, he focused on education as well as advocacy in the courts and Congress, and supported the 2012 opening of the Center for Religious Liberty on Capitol Hill.

Mr. Walker was an adjunct professor of law at Georgetown University Law Center for 10 years and served as an adjunct professor at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond.

He earned a bachelor’s degree with honors and a master’s degree from the University of Florida, and he holds a Juris Doctor cum laude from Stetson University College of Law. Mr. Walker received an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree in 2013 from the John Leland Center for Theological Studies.

2017 SPRING
COMMENCEMENT

Awards to Outstanding Scholars

The Selection Committee for Outstanding Scholars considers grade point average, curriculum, academic awards, research projects or honors thesis. Four-year scholars must have started as freshmen at UF and have no more than minimal work at other institutions.

Kara L. Conley

Four-Year Scholar

What is your proudest Gator moment?

My proudest Gator moment was finding out I would be a double Gator, staying in Gainesville to earn my Master of Accounting degree.

What is something every Gator should know?

Every Gator should know that your time at UF will fly by, and you should cherish every moment.

What is your favorite Gator icon or tradition?

Gator Growl is my favorite UF tradition; let the Gator growl!

Who are the Gators who inspire you?

I am inspired by the Business Gators who continue to mentor me even though they have graduated and started their careers. Their regular texts and phone calls demonstrate their commitment to helping fellow Gators. They have taught me that you don't stop being a part of The Gator Nation after walking across the graduation stage.

What is the most important lesson you have learned from (or taught to) a fellow Gator?

The most important lesson I have learned from my fellow Gators is the value of giving back. The friends I have made at UF inspire me every day to strive to make an impact by serving others.

What is your most fulfilling UF role?

Serving as a Warrington Diplomat was my most fulfilling UF role. I loved giving tours to prospective students and sharing life as a Business Gator with them.

Which of your UF affiliations or activities nurtured you the most?

The mentors in the Florida Leadership Academy have helped me grow and have guided me from sophomore year through today.

How will you pay it forward?

I will pay it forward by joining my employer's recruitment efforts and coming back to Gainesville to recruit Gator grads.

What will your legacy be?

My nickname in the business school is "Mom," which encompasses my legacy as a mentor who encouraged and supported other students.

How do you bleed orange and blue?

I bleed orange and blue by sharing my love for The Gator Nation with others. I love sharing my UF experiences with prospective students, current students and alumni.

Lily J. Parrish

Four-Year Scholar

What is your proudest Gator moment?

My proudest Gator moment occurred in the Swamp on Feb. 4, 2017. I was the student chair of an event called Stomp the Swamp for Autism. We raised more than double the funds than in past years. It was encouraging to see the UF community come together to support individuals with autism.

What is something every Gator should know?

Every Gator should know about the opportunities that exist in the Gainesville community for a wide range of interests. There is so much to do both on and off campus.

What is your favorite Gator icon or tradition?

My favorite Gator tradition is singing "We Are the Boys" after the third quarter of football games. The Gator Nation supports every member. Even when we are burnt out and worn out, our enthusiasm never quits.

Who are the Gators who inspire you?

My current peers are Gators who inspire me. I love witnessing others discover what they are passionate about and work toward success. Every day I become more impressed with what my peers accomplish.

What is the most important lesson you have learned from (or taught to) a fellow Gator?

A fellow Gator once taught me the importance of supporting and uplifting your peers, even if you are working toward the same goal. In the highly competitive environment of my major, this lesson is valuable because it has helped me remain grounded and true to the person I want to be.

What is your most fulfilling UF role?

Serving as the president of Impact Autism has been my most fulfilling role at UF. I have been able to experience firsthand the tangible impact I can have on the lives of others. The experience has filled me with joy and love.

Which of your UF affiliations or activities nurtured you the most?

I feel I was nurtured the most as a teaching assistant for the Honors Leadership Development Course. Hearing others' stories of struggle, failure and perseverance allowed me to reflect on my own experiences, and I grew a lot during that semester.

How will you pay it forward?

I will continue to work relentlessly to achieve my professional goals so that I can become a speech-language pathologist and work to help others achieve their functional goals. I will also continue to treat every person with respect and do my best to empower each individual with whom I interact.

What will your legacy be?

My legacy will be one of service and compassion. I hope to leave a lasting, positive impact on others. My legacy may not be one filled with prestigious accomplishments; instead, I hope to make small changes every place I go with every person I meet.

Awards to Outstanding Scholars

The Selection Committee for Outstanding Scholars considers grade point average, curriculum, academic awards, research projects or honors thesis. Four-year scholars must have started as freshmen at UF and have no more than minimal work at other institutions.

Wendy Serra

Four-Year Scholar

What is your proudest Gator moment?

My proudest Gator moment occurred unexpectedly as I was walking through Turlington Plaza in November 2016, right before the election. The plaza was full of students from both major political parties offering to drive others, regardless of affiliation, to the polls. It was heartwarming to see Gators set aside political convictions for greater democratic principles, and this made me very proud to be a Gator.

What is something every Gator should know?

All of the incoming students should be told the faculty are usually extremely interested in what they teach and will become invested in them if they show genuine interest, too. Approaching them with questions or asking them to revise your essays, which all of them will gladly do, is essential to really getting the most of the college experience, academically and otherwise.

What is your favorite Gator icon or tradition?

Century Tower playing songs mid-afternoon is an unusual, but highly meaningful, favorite Gator tradition. I heard it as a freshman after receiving my lowest grade ever on a paper, after my final LSAT review section and right before my Harvard Law interview in Marston. It may not be the most popular tradition, but it has been a tremendous source of inspiration during my toughest times in college.

Who are the Gators who inspire you?

Chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court and Gator alumnus Jorge Labarga's conversation with my group of legislative interns in Tallahassee during the spring of 2016 was extremely inspiring. He told us that success was a combination of preparation and being in the right place at the right time. He emphasized how important it is to devote yourself to your passions. It changed how I saw myself in society.

What is the most important lesson you have learned from (or taught to) a fellow Gator?

From a fellow student leader, I learned how important it was to keep trying, despite failure, rejection and setbacks, to reach my goals. He taught me that there was no straight line from point A to point B. As long as one is properly driven and puts forth enough effort, anything can be achieved.

What is your most fulfilling UF role?

Planning the Future of Florida Summit at the Bob Graham Center for Public Service as a member of the Organizing Committee two years in a row allowed me to see just how much of an impact I could have in helping college students all around Florida become interested in politics and service. It was incredibly fulfilling because I got to be a part of the entire process, from planning to guiding small policy groups.

How will you pay it forward?

Once I have established myself as a lawyer, I hope to make my university proud by helping others, either through founding a nonprofit or pro-bono work. I intend to give back in the form of donations as soon as I graduate. However, my ultimate goal would be to contribute twice as much to the Machen Florida Opportunity Scholars Program as it has given me the last four years, since I wouldn't be here without it.

Valerie J. Thoroyan

Four-Year Scholar

What is your proudest Gator moment?

My proudest moment was getting first-row tickets on the goal line to the Ole Miss football game in October 2015. I will never forget that experience.

What is something every Gator should know?

Every Gator should know compassion and acceptance of others. That is what this university is built on.

What is your favorite Gator icon or tradition?

I started my own tradition. Before football games, I go to Lake Alice and watch the gators; I sometimes give them pep talks, too!

Who are the Gators who inspire you?

The Gators who inspire me are the faculty and staff who work every day to provide me with knowledge and to make this university — and the world — a better place.

What is the most important lesson you have learned from (or taught to) a fellow Gator?

I have learned to let loose and try new adventures with people. All of the people I have met have shared the activities they love with me, and I share mine with them.

What is your most fulfilling UF role?

Just being a student at UF is fulfilling enough. Knowing I am a part of the good UF is doing for our community and people's lives is exhilarating.

Which of your UF affiliations or activities nurtured you the most?

One of my favorite things about this campus is the beauty of it. Whether roaming the paths shaded by oaks or sighting alligators and bats near Lake Alice, I always found a way to relax and take a break from my intensive studies at UF. This opportunity helped get me through some tough times.

How will you pay it forward?

I will continue to give back to my community wherever I am. Community service is an important part of my life. I will volunteer in free clinics as a physician's assistant student and as a practitioner.

What will your legacy be?

I hope to be remembered by the cancer patients I take care of at UF Health Shands Hospital. I hope to continue to provide all of the care and support I can possibly give and that I may make patients' lives easier while they are going through this difficult time.

What do you bleed orange and blue?

No matter where I go, The Gator Nation will always be in my heart.

Awards to Outstanding Student Leaders

The Selection Committee for Outstanding Graduating Student Leaders considers the quality and scope of leadership activities, universitywide leadership, experience, special awards, recognition and recommendations of faculty, staff and students.

Jenny Clements

Outstanding Leader

What is your proudest Gator moment?

My proudest moment is when I first became a Gator with my official acceptance. I've had so many amazing moments in my four years, but the one that means the most, and set me on this course, was my acceptance.

What is something every Gator should know?

Every Gator should know that the university has many amazing resources to offer students to ensure they're successful, from the Career Resource Center and the Dean of Students Office to the Counseling and Wellness Center.

What is your favorite Gator icon or tradition?

My favorite University of Florida icon is Century Tower.

Who are the Gators who inspire you?

The University of Florida has cultivated inspirational leaders on every level. President Fuchs, while an adopted Gator, is the ultimate example of hard work, dedication and kindness. I know with his leadership, UF will only continue to rise. James Tyger has been a mentor and advisor to me in various leadership roles throughout my college career. He never stops working for the betterment of students through his various roles in Student Affairs and is always filled with endless words of advice. Finally, I've had the opportunity to learn from and be challenged by many of my peers, like Jason Richards. UF is truly filled with the best people.

What is the most important lesson you have learned from (or taught to) a fellow Gator?

Always keep your goals at the forefront. Hard work and dedication will pay off!

What was your most fulfilling UF role?

My most fulfilling role was serving as senate president within Student Government. I learned the most about myself through this role and was able to create positive change on campus.

Which of your UF affiliations or activities nurtured you the most?

As senate president, I had to constantly adapt to new situations, work through problems and make sure my organization and members were the best they could be. The role was tough on some days and fun on others. It definitely tested me in more ways than I could have imagined and made me who I am today.

How will you pay it forward?

Throughout my future career, I'm excited to carry the title of Gator with me. I'm excited to continue to give back to the students and the greater Gator Nation through continued involvement.

What will your legacy be?

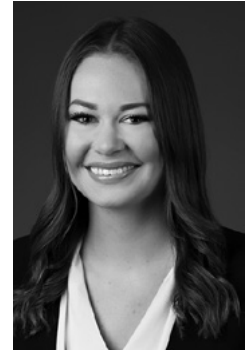

My legacy will be left with the people who I've influenced. Many Gators that came before contributed to who I am today, and I hope I've made the same impact on others.

How do you bleed orange and blue?

I bleed orange and blue simply by being a Gator. We're all Gators.

Destiny Goede

Outstanding Leader

What is your proudest Gator moment?

My proudest Gator moment was when I was accepted into the University of Florida's Levin College of Law and found out that I would be a double Gator!

What is something every Gator should know?

Every Gator should know that they are valued and have the support of the entire Gator Nation behind them.

What is your favorite Gator icon or tradition?

My favorite Gator tradition has always been singing "We Are the Boys" after the third quarter of each football game and watching all of the Gator fans come together to celebrate The Gator Nation and support our team.

Who are the Gators who inspire you?

During my time at UF, I have been inspired by countless Gators. Dr. Jen Day Shaw and Reggie Lane have never ceased to amaze me with their constant dedication to students. However, the one Gator that has inspired me throughout my entire life has been my father, John Goede.

What is the most important lesson you have learned from (or taught to) a fellow Gator?

The most important lesson I have learned from a fellow Gator was to always be present in the moment and to always take advantage of all the incredible opportunities the University of Florida has to offer.

What was your most fulfilling UF role?

My most fulfilling role was my time serving as the executive director of Student Government's Chomp the Vote. While serving as the head of this agency, I was charged with providing more than 50,000 UF students with the opportunity to register to vote, update voter information and provide nonpartisan education and mobilization during an election year, which was an incredible experience.

Which of your UF affiliations or activities nurtured you the most?

The UF organization that provided me with a constant support system was my affiliation with Delta Zeta sorority. This remarkable organization surrounded me with role models and women who inspire me each and every day. Serving as the chapter president was an incredible honor because of the women I had the opportunity to lead.

How will you pay it forward?

I will pay it forward by dedicating my life to serving others and working tirelessly to increase access to justice for all.

What will your legacy be?

I hope to have left a legacy of servant leadership in every organization that I have been a part of and that I inspire others to serve as a leader in their own lives.

How do you bleed orange and blue?

I bleed orange and blue by truly dedicating everything I have to any organization that I am a part of here in The Gator Nation. I have worked tirelessly to work toward the Gator Good and to leave this campus better than I found it for future Gators.

Awards to Outstanding Student Leaders

The Selection Committee for Outstanding Graduating Student Leaders considers the quality and scope of leadership activities, universitywide leadership, experience, special awards, recognition and recommendations of faculty, staff and students.

Brendon Jonassaint Outstanding Leader

What is your proudest Gator moment?

My proudest Gator moment was walking on the field as the 2016 Homecoming King. Being honored as the Homecoming King at an institution of our magnitude, in front of almost 90,000 people, is certainly a memory I will never forget.

What is something every Gator should know?

Every Gator should know that Every Gator Counts. This is the idea that no Gator is greater than another and, even on a campus of over 50,000 students, there is not one to spare. We all matter.

What is your favorite Gator icon or tradition?

My favorite Gator tradition is attending Preview. As someone who thoroughly enjoyed their Preview experience, I made it my duty to pay that forward by becoming a Preview staffer and a Preview coordinator. Preview sets the groundwork for the success of our students in the future.

Who are the Gators who inspire you?

The Gators that inspire me are Reggie Lane, Will Atkins and Mickey Howard. These three men have challenged and mentored me from the first time they met me in order to make sure I would reach my full potential.

What is the most important lesson you have learned from (or taught to) a fellow Gator?

There is so much that the university offers but never forget to pay it forward and give back to the university.

What was your most fulfilling UF role?

Being a Preview staffer and being able to mentor and aid my students in their transition into UF definitely means a lot to me. My favorite quote is by Tupac and it is, "I'm not saying I'm gonna change the world, but I guarantee that I will spark the brain of the brain that will change the world," and I feel as if I have done this with Preview.

Which of your UF affiliations or activities nurtured you the most?

Being a Preview staffer allowed me to learn with and from 41 of the best student leaders on our campus. Preview also exposed me to many campus partners and resources that made me a better leader and advocate on our campus.

How will you pay it forward?

I will pay it forward through mentorship. Everything I do, and will continue to do in the future, is to make sure the people in the next generation are more successful than we are currently.

What will your legacy be?

I hope my legacy will be one where people knew I was an authentic, intentional and servant leader.

How do you bleed orange and blue?

I bleed orange and blue through my service and dedication to the university. Whether I am physically on campus or out of Gainesville, I will keep The Gator Nation close and promote its mission through everything I do.

Jason Richards Outstanding Leader

What is your proudest Gator moment?

My proudest Gator moment was my first time stepping on campus as an official student.

What is something every Gator should know?

Every Gator should know The Gator Nation really is everywhere, both before and after graduation.

What is your favorite Gator icon or tradition?

My favorite tradition is singing "We Are the Boys" during football games. There's nothing quite like linking arms with 90,000 other Gators.

Who are the Gators who inspire you?

Throughout my four years, I have met tons of people who I will cherish and remember forever. Some of the people who have challenged and inspired me the most are Jenny Clements, Nick Meno, Eric Hobbs, Matt Epstein and James Tyger.

What is the most important lesson you have learned from (or taught to) a fellow Gator?

The most important lesson I've learned, and I will always stress to others, is to be yourself.

What was your most fulfilling UF role?

Of all the positions I have held, being external affairs chairman has been the most meaningful and rewarding position I have had. Through this role, I was the official liaison between the University of Florida Student Body and the local, state and federal governments. My time serving as chairman has revolved around tackling mental health, college affordability, campus climate and the student experience.

Which of your UF affiliations or activities nurtured you the most?

One of the most meaningful affiliations is being a brother of Kappa Phi Epsilon. I'm proud to be a part of a group of people who can ground and challenge me every day.

How will you pay it forward?

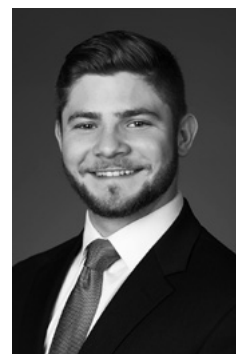

Once you're a Gator, you are always a Gator. I will pay it forward by always being an active member of The Gator Nation and giving back to the current students.

What will your legacy be?

I hope my legacy will be the impact I make on the people around me. I am extremely proud of my accomplishments and the concrete changes I have made for current and future Gators. However, nothing has been as rewarding as the relationships I've built and what I have stood for throughout my leadership roles.

How do you bleed orange and blue?

I bleed orange and blue by taking part in the millions of opportunities that UF provides to students from participating in organizations and attending sporting events to exploring the Gainesville community.

Awards to Outstanding Student Leaders

The Selection Committee for Outstanding Graduating Student Leaders considers the quality and scope of leadership activities, universitywide leadership, experience, special awards, recognition and recommendations of faculty, staff and students.

Noelle Spencer

Outstanding Leader

What is your proudest Gator moment?

Through the Florida Cicerones, the official ambassadors to the University of Florida, I had the opportunity to volunteer at the annual Gator 100 event, which recognizes the top 100 Gator-led or Gator-owned companies throughout the United States and abroad. During the final lunch, I was seated next to UF alumni from a variety of graduating classes. As the alumni at my table were asking me questions about the campus today, it made me realize I will soon join a network of alumni who are over 500,000 strong. Seeing their passion for The Gator Nation inspired me to use my degree for projects and programs bigger than myself.

What is something every Gator should know?

At our school of over 50,000 students, it is important to know that every student matters. There's an amazing organization within the Dean of Students Office called U Matter, We Care. This initiative has worked with students who are feeling lost, alone or going through a rough time. While there will always be challenges in life, I am thankful to attend a university that values every single one of its students and creates programs to ensure that we are all looking out for another.

What is your favorite Gator icon or tradition?

Without a doubt, my favorite Gator tradition is singing "We Are the Boys" after the third quarter of football games. Seeing strangers link arm and arm shows unity, pride and encouragement. Being a Gator is more than four years; it's a lifelong bond and privilege. The lines, "In all kinds of weather, we all stick together," could not be more true.

Who are the Gators who inspire you?

Without hesitation, my older brother Grant is the Gator who inspires me the most. He shows me what tenacity, motivation and hard work can achieve. After being diagnosed with a disease during his junior year of college, Grant spent nearly two years at UF Health Shands Hospital. He has never let any challenge hold him back from completing his degree, and he is expected to graduate from the University of Florida in May 2018. He is a true hero, a bold optimist and an inspiration to Gators both young and old.

What is the most important lesson you have learned from (or taught to) a fellow Gator?

A critical piece of advice I often tell my first-year students is that it's important to find mentors early. I found my first mentor simply by asking someone via Facebook to grab coffee. It's never too early, or too late, to build a strong relationship in your field of interest, or who is in a role you hope to follow one day. Hearing the many successes and failures from my mentors encouraged me to go after many involvement opportunities on campus, and in turn, I have been able to mentor many UF students.

How do you bleed orange and blue?

Being a part of the University of Florida means being a part of something that is much bigger than myself. I bleed orange and blue through my school pride, my culture of care and desire to work for the Gator Good. The University of Florida has exposed me to a diverse student body that values passion, commitment and a strong desire to better the world in which we live in. While the University of Florida is in Gainesville, The Gator Nation is truly everywhere. I can't wait to show my love for UF as I continue beyond.

CHAIN OF OFFICE

This custom-made ornament is worn with the president's regalia, symbolizing the authority and responsibilities of the office. The chain is engraved with the names and service years of the university presidents. The medallion's centerpiece is a 1.3-carat diamond.

ACADEMIC MACE

Dating back to the Middle Ages, the mace symbolizes strength and authority. The UF ceremonial mace was created for the university's sesquicentennial celebration in 2003. The 70-inch staff features an alligator sitting atop a globe. The four pillars supporting the globe represent the four original colleges: Agriculture, Engineering, Law, and Liberal Arts. The staff is carved from cherry wood. The university's chief marshal, who leads all academic processions, carries the mace.

Caps and Gowns, An Explanation

The academic regalia worn by graduating students and faculty at today's commencement ceremonies evolved from a style of dress worn by members of guilds and religious orders in medieval times. The academic gown is worn by individuals who have earned a degree in higher education. In addition, hoods are worn by graduate degree candidates, but not by undergraduate degree candidates.

At the University of Florida, the lining of the hood has a blue chevron on an orange background to represent the university colors. University faculty members who hold degrees from another college or university wear the colors of their alma mater.

The velvet edging on the academic hood is the color that represents the particular degree held by the wearer. Agricultural and Life Sciences and Forest Resources and Conservation share maize edging; Design, Construction and Planning and Building Construction are blue violet; Audiology degrees have colonial blue edging; Business Administration and Accounting are drab; Dentistry is lilac; Education is light blue; Engineering degrees are represented by orange edging; Fine Arts degrees have brown edging; Health and Human Performance is sage green; Journalism and Communications is garnet; Law is purple; Liberal Arts is white and Liberal Sciences is gold yellow; Medicine is green; Music is pink; Natural Resources and Environment is antique gold; Nursing is apricot; Doctor of Pharmacy is olive; Philosophy is royal blue; Public Health degrees have salmon pink edging; Rehabilitation Counseling degrees have Nile green edging; and Veterinary Medicine is gray.

Distinctions among sleeves indicate the type of degree held by the wearer. A long, pointed sleeve indicates a bachelor's degree, while a long, closed sleeve with a slit near the upper part of the arm designates a master's degree. A round, open sleeve identifies a doctoral degree.

The doctoral regalia also has velvet running on the rest of the gown, including cross bars on the sleeve. Colored tassels on the degree candidates' caps indicate a candidate's school or college.

UF

Alma Mater

*Florida, our Alma Mater
Thy glorious name we praise
All thy loyal sons and daughters
A joyous song shall raise.
Where palm and pine are blowing,
Where southern seas are flowing,
Shine forth thy noble Gothic walls,
Thy lovely vine-clad halls.
Neath the Orange and Blue victorious
Our love shall never fail.
There's no other name so glorious—
All hail, Florida, Hail!*
